

Andrew Welch
Director of Clubhouse Operations
Army Navy Country Club

Andrew holds a Bachelor's degree in hospitality management from Shannon College of Hotel Management in Ireland and an MBA from Nova Southeastern University, Fort Lauderdale, FL. He trained in Dublin, London, Zurich and New York before beginning his management career as the General Manager at Walkers Cay Hotel & Marina, an island resort in the Bahamas, where he worked for 10 years.

In 2001 he accepted the position of General Manager at the renowned 5 star/5 Diamond/3 Michelin star Inn at Little Washington in Washington, VA – a role he held for 7 years. Andrew then served as Director of Food & Beverage at the Hay Adams Hotel in Washington, DC.

Following a successful career in hotel and resort management, Andrew joined Army Navy Country Club in July of 2012, as Director of Clubhouse Operations to oversee the opening and management of its new 100,000 sq. ft. clubhouse in Arlington, VA.

He is married with three daughters and lives in Warrenton, VA where he is a keen but erratic golfer who enjoys taking money from his friends Patrick and Michael.